We Offer Promotional Products!

It's human nature to want to be recognized for a good job, good service or a "Thank you" for being a great customer. One easy way to recognize an employee is by giving them a company work shirt or a coffee mug. Customers love gifts too. Our company gives out yearly calendars with our name and numbers on them and customers love writing in their daily appointments and schedules. We've done it for so many years, our customers always inquire about them. They tell us no one else gives them out anymore.

Doctors' offices are now giving out magnetic appointment cards so patients can place them on their refrigerators. This way they're not misplaced and no appointments are missed. It's a great idea!

Printing Plus can be your ONE STOP SHOP. Come see us for all your printing, copying and promotional products.
